

CONNECTICUT'S OLD STATE HOUSE SPECIAL PROGRAMMING

Every year, our dedicated program staff at Connecticut's Old State House curate a tremendous calendar of in-person and virtual programs focusing on Connecticut history and civics. These events are well attended by the community and feature world-renowned experts and thought leaders. Take a look below at some of our proudest programs in recent years.

Special Program examples:

- ▶ "Educate, Empower, Engage: A Conversation on the Lasting Impact of Civic Education"
- ▶ "Evening Conversations - Hidden Laws: How State Constitutions Stabilize American Politics"
- ▶ "Conversations at Noon on the CT Freedom Trail - Sleeping with the Ancestors the Educational Value of Sleeping in Slave Dwellings"
- ▶ "Let Me Draw You a Picture: A Conversation with Political Cartoonist Bob Englehart"
- ▶ "Witchcraft Panic in Colonial Connecticut"
- ▶ "Connecticut's Battle Over Emancipation Lincoln, Copperheads, and...Steven Spielberg?"
- ▶ "Untangling the Tally," Limited Series on Voting and Elections
- ▶ "Book Talk - 100% Democracy: The Case for Universal Voting"
- ▶ "Book Talk - Reclaiming Patriotism in An Age of Extremes"
- ▶ "Voter Registration Celebration" - on National Voter Registration Day
- ▶ "A Night at the Public House - Let Them Vote!" - Author Susan Campbell talks women's suffrage

Special Programming Recognition ($250 value)

- Your organization's logo on all pre-event slides for in-person and virtual events.
- Verbal recognition and thanks from the program host at the beginning and conclusion of the event.
- For in-person events, logo recognition in the event program.
- Guaranteed "question & answer" submissions to be acknowledged by program speakers.
- Free coffee and reserved seating at in-person special programs.

